Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library Library Display Policy

Displays are selected, designed, and arranged solely by Library staff. No other person, group, or organization has authority or permission to erect or maintain any display on the main floor of the Library. All common areas of the Bismarck Public Library, excluding properly scheduled meeting rooms, are not public forum for First Amendment purposes. Temporary displays on the Library building or outside on any Library property must be approved by the Library Director.

Approved by the Library Board: 4-24-96; reaffirmed: 4-27-06; amended 2-25-2010.
