Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library: Teen HQ to Celebrate National Handwriting Day in Style

WHAT:

Master the Art of Elegant Penmanship on National Handwriting Day! Join us at Bismarck Veterans Memorial Public Library and delve into the grace of Spencerian script with expert calligrapher June Preszler. Celebrate the art of handwriting on January 23rd, the birthday of John Hancock, whose iconic signature on the Declaration of Independence commemorates the day.

Spencerian handwriting, a distinguished American cursive style, offers speed and elegance, enhancing everything from journal entries to personal correspondence. In our interactive session, discover how to add a touch of classic beauty to your writing.

After the workshop, why not explore the world of calligraphy further? Our section 745.61 boasts comprehensive guides like Michael R. Sull's "Spencerian Script and Ornamental Penmanship" and "Learning to Write Spencerian Script," or William E. Henning's "An Elegant Hand." For those eager to continue their journey, consider "Spencerian Penmanship (Theory Book plus five copybooks)" [ISBN 9780880620963] or "Spencerian Penmanship (Theory Book)" by Platt Rogers Spencer [ISBN 9780880620826], available at your preferred bookstore.

Expand your knowledge online with resources about Spencerian handwriting, Michael Sull, and modern masters like Jake Weidmann, whose TEDx Talk "Why write? Penmanship for the 21st Century" is a must-watch.
